RecruitMilitary's partnership with the President's National Hire Veterans Committee (HireVets First), a U.S. Department of Labor entity, was so successful for the 45 nationwide events in 2007, that we are putting on 104 Career Fairs across the nation in 2008 to help even more of our returning troops and veterans and their spouses in more cities find employment.

The DOL and RecruitMilitary, along with the American Legion and MSCCN are really hoping for a great turnout for this event presented to benefit all those military veterans, transitioning personnel, and Guard and Reserve members in the area.

Have you ever gone to your local wireless store and they discontinued your battery? Look no further, America's # 1 battery center, Interstate All Battery Center (IABC) will be coming to San Diego, later this month. IABC promises to meet all customer needs even if they have to find it or build it.

Earlier this year, Ron Cummings signed an agreement with Interstate All Battery Center (IABC) to open a location at 9345 Cabot Drive. The store will offer more than 13,000 types of power solutions for everything from laptops to cameras to boats to hearing aids.

This year IABC has seen record franchisee signings and continues to experience increased sales and franchisee satisfaction.

"Our franchisees are finding that we offer the right product, extreme service and a great concept to succeed in the world of retail," said IABC Director of Franchise Development Justin Darland. "The public is proving its loyalty to the concept with a 98 percent customer service retention rate for current Interstate All Battery Centers."

Interstate Batteries, the billion dollar company that earned its reputation with automotive batteries, honed the Interstate All Battery Center concept with 14 company-owned stores before offering the concept to franchisees in 2000. IABC is the first nationally established brand to enter the fragmented battery market. IABC's proven ingredients to success position the company to lead the retail battery category, which analysts project will reach $73 billion globally by 2010.
