Ten of Sudbury's best entrepreneurs and businesses were recognized May 12 at the Greater Sudbury Chamber of Commerce's Bell Business Excellence Awards ceremony.

Almost 400 colleagues and friends attended the gala at the Caruso Club.

The awards sponsored by Bell, pay tribute to businesses and entrepreneurs whose achievements and contributions to the community distinguish them from their peers.

Recipients were Interstate Battery Systems of Northern Ontario (Entrepreneur of the Year), Science North (Chairs Award), Sudbury Cycle and Marine (Service Excellence Award), Avantage Physiotherapy and Sports Injury Clinic (Business Start-up Award) sponsored by Northern Life and Northern Ontario Business, Gloria's Restaurant (Hospitality Award), Big Daddy 103.9 FM (New Venture Award), MIRARCO (Innovation Award), Golder Associates Ltd. And Golder Paste Technology Ltd. (Company of the Year Award), OvertheAtlantic (Young Entrepreneur of the Year Award) and Nana's Kettle Corn (Small Office/Home Office Award).
